Treat for Jurgen's 100,000th student

FOREIGN students had a party on Eastbourne pier to celebrate the arrival of Jurgen Matthes' 100,000th student.

Rebecca Schiedler, 14, is staying in Eastbourne for three weeks and was given a special treat last Sunday evening.

The German student was welcomed by Mayor Mary Pooley and enjoyed a tour of the town in a Hummer limousine.

More than 800 students attended a party at Atlantis Nightclub and when the disco was over Rebecca was taken back to her host family in the limousine.

Jurgen Matthes student organisation also celebrates its 25th anniversary this year.
